EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

Shantel started her career in Durban as an intern at KPMG as part of the Forensic Graduate Program. She was promoted to a forensic investigator within one year's employment and transferred to Pretoria. She was part of a variety of investigations in the public sector, private sector, sport sector, mining sector and medical sector. She also assisted with investigations across South African borders.

Following the Graduate Program, Shantel served as a Forensic Auditor at P Brink & Associates where she was part of a team that investigated insurance claims. Apart from the insurance claims she worked closely with the SAPS during the sequestration process of an individual as well as the service of the subpoenas for the attachment of property. She also assisted in the tracing of individuals.

Please note that this CV contains personal information of the candidate, and general reference to involvement in investigations. Specific detail about involvement in assignments and roles played in specific investigations/projects will be provided in a separate 'record of experience' document, which will detail the candidate's industry- and investigation-related experience.
