EMPLOYMENT HISTORY —

From 1987 to 1995, Ockert was stationed in the Detective Services Branch of the SAPS. During this time, he was involved in various types of criminal investigations ranging from syndicate driven house breakings to fraud investigations.

In 1995, Ockert was transferred from the detective branch to the National Anti-Corruption Unit of the SAPS. During the time stationed at this unit, he was part of a core team of detectives that was involved in the investigation of syndicate driven police corruption by utilising specialised and undercover investigation methods. Ockert obtained valuable court experience as a detective by working in conjunction with various state prosecutors on police corruption cases.

Ockert resigned from the SAPS in 1999 and since 2000, he was involved in a wide range of forensic investigations in the private and public sector as the Forensic Investigation Operational Director of Commercial Forensic Investigative Services ('CFIS'). Ockert was appointed at Nexus as a Manager in 2011, in 2012 he was promoted to Senior Manager and during 2017 he was promoted to Associate Director.
